Navigating Pain Prescribing: Deterring Substance Use Disorders TeleECHO

MAY 28th 2020

Treating Pain in 2020: Assessment and Interventional Treatment for Pain
Andrew Sack, MD, KU Medical Center, Department of Anesthesiology

JUNE 4th 2020

CDC Guidelines: Prescribing Opioids for Chronic Pain
Melanie Simpson, PhD, RN-BC, OCN, CHPN, CPE, University of Kansas Health System

JUNE 11th 2020

Biopsychosocial Factors: Empowering the Patient
Melanie Simpson, PhD, RN-BC, OCN, CHPN, CPE, University of Kansas Health System
Shawna Wright, PhD, LP, KU Medical Center, Center for Telemedicine & Telehealth

JUNE 18th 2020

K-TRACS: Clinical Decision Making at Your Fingertips
Jennifer Donnelly, MPH, Kansas Board of Pharmacy

JUNE 25th 2020

Pain Management: Special Populations
Andrew Roberts, PharmD, PhD, KU Medical Center, Department of Population Health

SESSIONS Noon-1pm

Open to: Physicians, advance practice providers, nursing professionals, and behavioral health providers.

This TeleECHO series focuses on best practices for pain assessment, management, and treatment, as well as utilization of Kansas’s prescription drug monitoring program to deter substance use disorders.

CEUs Available!

REQUEST FOR CASE STUDIES
If you have a patient case you would be interested in presenting during any of the above sessions, https://bit.ly/PainRXCase2020

This Project ECHO series is sponsored by Cooperative Agreement number NU17CE924998-01, funded by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.