Implementing Telehealth
Ready or Not!

SESSIONS Noon-1pm

APRIL 9TH 2020
Telehealth Basics & Spectrum of Care
Telehealth 911 & Telehealth Tools
Shawna Wright, PhD, LP, Associate Director, KUMC Center for Telemedicine & Telehealth, Assistant Clinical Professor, KUMC Department of Psychiatry & Behavioral Sciences.

APRIL 16TH 2020
State & Federal Policy Updates
Rapid response telehealth updates
Ryan Spaulding, PhD, Vice Chancellor Community Engagement-Research Associate Professor-Acting Director KUMC Center for Telemedicine & Telehealth.

APRIL 23RD 2020
Direct Patient Care
Translating Practice to Telehealth
Damien Stevens, MD, Associate Professor, KUMC Pulmonary & Critical Care Medicine.

APRIL 30TH 2020
Sustaining Telehealth
After the Crisis: Sustaining Telehealth Programs
Shane Hudson, MS, LCP, LCAC, President & CEO, CKF Addiction Treatment

Open to all healthcare organizations and providers!

This ECHO series focuses on assisting diverse healthcare organizations and providers prepare for the rapid development and deployment of telehealth programs and services to increase direct patient care during the COVID-19 health pandemic or other large-scale crises.

REGISTER bit.ly/TelehealthECHO

CEUs available!

CASE STUDIES
Whether you are new to telehealth or have established telehealth programs, we want to hear about your experiences and needs related to telehealth utilization in response during rapid implementation. Please consider sharing your telehealth journey, questions, challenges/barriers, solutions and resources with the broader ECHO collaborative learning experience.