

Minutes
SAH Faculty Meeting
December 4, 2002

1. John Ferraro gave an update on the progress of the new research building that will be built behind the library. Architects have been hired. John was pleased to announce that the SAH will be well represented in the space and in the design of the space.
2. Steve Ruddick gave a brief update on recent changes in the State Ethics Law. Handouts were available. Steve answered many questions. If faculty have specific questions as they apply to individual circumstances please contact him.
3. Dean Miller gave her report of her activities on behalf of the school. These were summarized in a handout. She answered questions covering many topics. Of most concern are budget issues and declining enrollments. The Dean also mentioned progress in KU HealthPartners. An annual meeting was held in November.
4. John Ferraro encouraged faculty to participate in the KU First campaign.
5. Perri Cagle announced some activities of the Council of Faculty Senate Presidents. She also encouraged faculty to offer their opinions on the upcoming changes in the revised faculty handbook. Perri will be serving on the steering committee for the handbook revisions.
