Public reception Friday, Nov. 6, for new art exhibit at the KU School of Medicine-Wichita

WICHITA, KS – A public reception for “Sketch N Go,” an exhibit in which artists Carol Davis and Linda Metsker share personal sketches, will be held from 2:30-3:15 p.m., Friday, November 6, in the West Atrium of the KU School of Medicine-Wichita, 1010 N. Kansas. The exhibit, which runs through December 25, 2009, consists of 15 to 20 sketches. It is free and open to the public from 8 a.m.-5 p.m., Monday-Friday, in the William J. Reals Gallery of Art-West.

The University of Kansas School of Medicine–Wichita is nationally recognized as a pioneer in community-oriented medical education. Since the first class graduated in 1975, more than 1,600 physicians have earned medical degrees. About half eventually established practices in the state, fulfilling the school’s promise of “Educating Doctors for Kansas.”
