

It's a wellness lunch-and-learn!

Protect Your Vision

Please join us to learn the latest ways you can protect your sight at these lunch-and-learn events with our eye doctors.

Our eye doctors have expertise in treating all eye conditions, including:

- Cataract
- Corneal and retinal diseases
- Glaucoma
- Eye infections and trauma

The Importance of Screening for Cataracts, Glaucoma and Diabetes

Erica Person, MD, ophthalmologist
Thursday, January 19
Noon-1 p.m.

Ophthalmology and Optical Shop
(inside KU Eye)

7400 State Line Road, Suite 100
Prairie Village, Kansas
Look for the KU Eye sign at the corner of State Line and 74th Street.

Updates on Cataract and Lasik Surgery

Miranda Bishara, MD, ophthalmologist
Wednesday, February 22
Noon-1 p.m.

Latest Developments in Diabetic Eye Disease and Age-Related Macular Degeneration

Andrew Symons, MD, ophthalmologist
Friday, March 9
Noon-1 p.m.

Bags Are Great Accessories, But Not When They Are Around Your Eyes

Jason Sokol, MD, ophthalmologist
Wednesday, April 18
Noon-1 p.m.

Lunch provided for each event. Registration required.
Call 913.588.1227 or kumed.com/bewell.

THE UNIVERSITY OF KANSAS
PHYSICIANS

