2021 EVENTS AND ACTIVITIES

BIOGRAPHICAL POSTERS OF FACULTY, STAFF & LEARNERS
June 1 – June 30
*Spotlights will be shared via social media and the diversity intranet site.
Learn about the background and careers of several LGBTQIA+ community members as well as their journey to KU Medical Center. Read stories online now.

JAYHAWK COFFEE BREAK
June 2 | 9 – 10 a.m. Register online now.
Join us during a special Jayhawk Coffee Break for the opportunity to connect with your LGBTQIA+ colleagues and community allies. This coffee break will highlight the faculty, staff and learners featured on the Pride Month biographical posters.

June 3-4 | Register online now.
This online symposium will include research presentations, discussions about challenges and opportunities and networking among others conducting LGBTQ+ research across disciplines. Our theme recognizes and honors the historical contributions to LGBTQ+ research while identifying innovative and creative ways to move this research forward.

PARENT AND YOUTH PANEL
June 9 | 6 – 7:30 p.m. Register online now.
This event will feature families sharing their personal experiences with having children who identify as part of the LGBTQIA+ community, as well as a conversation about community resources to support LGBTQIA+ children, youth and young adults.

HEALING EVENT
June 15 | Noon - 1 p.m. Register online now.
This virtual space is designed for the KU Medical Center LGBTQIA+ community to come together in solidarity and support to discuss, process and begin the healing process from discrimination members may have faced. Drs. Amanda Lappin and Larry Long will guide this discussion, reflection and healing. We ask that this event be reserved for those identifying as members of the LGBTQIA+ community.

FACULTY, STAFF AND LEARNERS PANEL: SHARING OUR STORIES
June 16 | 4 – 5:30 p.m. Register online now.
A diverse panel of KU Medical Center faculty, staff and learners will share their personal and professional journeys as members of the LGBTQIA+ community and participants will engage in a meaningful discussion on supporting and uplifting LGBTQIA+ colleagues.
KU MEDICAL CENTER BROWN BAG DRAG
June 18 | Noon - 1 p.m. | HEB Courtyard, space is limited Register online now.
Celebrate Pride Month with this in-person event hosted by Kansas City's Daisy Bücket, featuring local drag performers.

PRIDE NIGHT AT THE "K"
June 18 | Gate A opens at 5:30 p.m. Game starts at 7:10 p.m. Tickets and information.
Show your true colors at Kauffman Stadium's Pride Night! Purchase a Theme Ticket package to receive a limited edition rainbow Royals pocket tank top.

RESEARCH DAY
June 23 | 10 a.m. – 1 p.m. Register online now.
Research day presentations will highlight research focused on the LGBTQIA+ community or research done by community members who identify as LGBTQIA+. A keynote address delivered by Dr. Katie Batza, Associate Professor of Women, Gender and Sexuality Studies at the University of Kansas, will follow digital presentations.

FX PRIDE DOCUMENTARY DISCUSSION
June 24 | 4 – 5 p.m. Register online now.
PRIDE is a six-part documentary series chronicling the struggle for LGBTQ+ civil rights in America from the 1950s through the 2000s. "Seven renowned LGBTQ+ directors explore heroic and heartbreaking stories that define us as a nation. The limited series spans the FBI surveillance of homosexuals during the 1950s Lavender Scare to the "Culture Wars" of the 1990s and beyond, exploring the queer legacy of the Civil Rights movement and the battle over marriage equality." This series is being shown on FX and steaming on FX Online and Hulu. We encourage all to watch the series and join us for a group discussion on our LGBTQIA+ history.

A COMMUNITY CONVERSATION WITH CHLOE DAVIS, AUTHOR OF THE QUEENS’ ENGLISH, THE LGBTQIA+ DICTIONARY OF LINGO, AND COLLOQUIAL PHRASES
June 28 | 4 – 5 p.m. Register online now.
Chloe Davis, author of The Queens' English, The LGBTQIA+ Dictionary of Lingo and Colloquial Phrases, has created a resource that celebrates the etymological diversity of over eight hundred terms used to describe the collective gay and queer experience. Join this final event of Pride Month as we discuss the words used to celebrate the LGBTQIA+ community.