BIOGRAPHICAL POSTERS OF RESEARCHERS, FACULTY, STAFF, LEARNERS, AND TRAINEES
September 15 – October 15
Learn about the background and careers of several Hispanic and Latinx learners, faculty, trainees, and staff, as well as their journey to KU Medical Center. Community members' stories are available online throughout the month. Spotlights will be shared via social media and the diversity intranet site.

JAYHAWK COFFEE BREAK
September 15 | 8:30 – 9:30 a.m.
Join us during a special Jayhawk Coffee Break for the opportunity to connect with your Hispanic and Latinx colleagues. This coffee break will highlight the faculty, staff, and learners featured on the Hispanic and Latinx Heritage month biographical posters. Register online now.

CLINICAL CULTURE AND DIVERSITY SERIES
September 21 | Noon – 1:00 p.m. Register online now.
Join us for a special presentation by José Faus on “Cambarion Mi Nombre/They Changed my Name.” The Clinical Culture and Diversity Series explores issues related to inter-cultural communication in the clinical setting.

A COMMUNITY CONVERSATION WITH CARRIE GIBSON, AUTHOR OF EL NORTE: THE EPIC AND FORGOTTEN STORY OF HISPANIC AMERICA
September 23 | 2 – 3 p.m. Register online now.
Carrie Gibson explains with great depth and clarity in El Norte, the nation has much older Spanish roots—ones that have long been unacknowledged or marginalized. The Hispanic past of the United States predates the arrival of the Pilgrims by a century, and has been every bit as important in shaping the nation as it exists today.

RESEARCH DAY
October 14 | 10:30 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.
Research day presentations will highlight research conducted by Hispanic and Latinx Faculty, Staff, Residents, and Students. A keynote address delivered by Dr. Adolfo G. Cuevas, Assistant Professor, community psychologist, and Director of the Psychosocial Determinators of Health Lab at Tufts University will follow digital presentations Register online now.