

The KU Open Access Author Fund

Annual Report (July 2021 - June 2022)

The KU One University Open Access Author Fund (OAAF) had an active year with a high number of applications requesting at least partial funding for article processing charges (APC). With the number of requests and rising APC fees, the fund has become very competitive, and the criteria and point system are essential in making award decisions. All the published articles with funding from OAAF are included in KU ScholarWorks, the University's institutional repository.

This report includes the statistics for FY 2022 in the following tables:

Table 1. Numbers of applications and awards

Table 2. Total amount spent and a breakdown by campus

We've also included appendices covering the fund from Inception (October 2012) through June 2022:

Table 1. Statistics for FY 2022

When compared to the previous fiscal year (July 2020-June 2021), there was a 9% decrease in the number of applications received and a decrease in applicants rejected. The number of awards that were offered and paid also decreased.

	FY22	FY21
1. Applications Received	70	77
2. Applications Rejected *	42	46
2. Awards Offered	28	31
3. Awards Paid 	14	22

Note: Three of the authors who were offered awards in FY22 have not used them as of October 1, 2022. The number of “Awards Paid” may still increase. The numbers in Lines 2 and 3 above add up to the total number of applications received (Line 1). Line 4 is a sub-set of Line 3.

 Main reasons why applications were rejected

1. Other applications received higher point totals and there were not enough funds to support all eligible applicants during that month’s competition.
2. The author, journal, or publisher did not meet the OAAF criteria.

* Main reasons why awards were not used

1. The manuscript was rejected by the editor / editorial board of the journal.
 2. The author did not use the award before it expired (4 months from the award notification date).

Table 2. Financial Statistics for FY 2022

Amount allocated for FY22	$25,000
Awards not redeemed in FY21	$5,022
Total amount available in FY22	$30,022

As of the end of FY22, $9,216.12 remained in the fund, which was rolled over to FY23.

As of October 1, 2022, there is $4,505 reserved for awards made during FY22 for articles still in the submission/review process. The portion of those funds not used before the four-month expiration date will be returned to the OAAF for use in FY23.

Awards by Campus (as of October 1, 2022)

KU Medical Center (All Locations)	$9,250	55%
KU Lawrence / Edwards	$7,501	45%
Total Expenditures	$16,751

Note: Total does not include $4,055 for awards offered but not used. Dollar amounts have been rounded to the nearest whole dollar.

Amount Paid per Award in FY 2022 (as of October 1, 2022)

Highest	$1,500
Lowest	$ 500
Average / Mean	$1,196.52
Median	$1,475.00

What Publishers Charge Authors

In FY22, the fees publishers charged authors applying for awards this year ranged from a high of $5,000 to a low of $550. Forty-two of the sixty-eight charges were over the OAAF maximum of $1,500.

Highest	$5,000
Lowest	$550
Average / Mean	$1,936.89
Median	$1,775.00

A Short History of the Open Access Author Fund at KU

The One University Open Access Author Fund (OAAF) at the University of Kansas is administered by the OAAF Review Team comprised of academic and biomedical librarians at the KU campus in Lawrence and at the KU Medical Center's Dykes Library in Kansas City. Oversight is provided by the sponsors who support the fund – KU's Provost, KU's Vice Chancellor for Research, and the KU Medical Center's Vice Chancellor for Research.

Detailed criteria and eligibility standards, an online application form, a list of awards made, and additional information is available at this URL: <http://library.kumc.edu/authors-fund.xml>. The OAAF began its first two-year pilot program in October of 2012 with $50,000 allocated equally by the Lawrence campus and the Medical Center. During that first pilot, which closed at the end of June 2014, applications were reviewed on a first-come, first-served basis. This resulted in the entire years' worth of funds being dispersed within four to six months of the opening of the fund.

To ensure that money would be available for an entire fiscal year during the second pilot phase (2014-2016), the OAAF Review Team solicited the advice of the members of the Faculty Consultation Group. Additional criteria, new eligibility standards, and different review periods were developed. In the redesigned competitive process, all the applications received during one month are now reviewed within the first seven business days of the next month. Various levels of weighted priority are now assigned as follows:

- A. Author's status (graduate student, pre-tenured faculty, early career research staff, etc.)
- B. Author's access to grants or other funding
- C. Author's record of previous OA awards received

This second phase of the pilot began in November 2014 with a new allocation of $50,000 to cover 2014-2016. Awards were made using the new criteria and procedures. The fund subsequently received $50,000 in July 2016, July 2018, and July 2020. In September 2022, the Fund received $72,000 for distribution in FY23 and FY24. The fund will continue to distribute awards through June 2024.

The number of fund applications has ranged between two and nine each month, out of which an average of one to three are approved. In March 2021 there was a record of 14 applications. All the articles that are paid for (at least in part) by the OAAF are now available for viewing at the OAAF website here – <http://library.kumc.edu/oa-fund-awards.xml>. The same articles are also added to the <https://kuscholarworks.ku.edu/handle/1808/11673> KU ScholarWorks, the University's institutional repository. The OAAF is marketed to faculty and graduate students through our website, social media, email, and group presentations.

The current two-year OAAF cycle expires June 30, 2024. The OAAF asked for and was granted an increase in funding from $25,000 to $36,000 from each campus to cover FY23 and FY24 awards. This will allow the OAAF to increase the payment cap for the APC fees to $2,000. Please note that the Sponsors have expressed concerns about the distribution criteria and the continuation of the Fund considering the changing Open Access landscape and the rise of transformative agreements.

Cumulative Statistics

Totals, Inception - June 2022

The following tables document the outcomes of the OAAF applications and awards process from the inception of the fund (Oct. 2012) through the end of the tenth year (June 2022). For a short history of the fund, see Appendix A above.

Table B-1. Totals

Applications Received	558
Applications Denied	261
Awards Offered	297
Awards Paid	198

Note: "Awards Paid" does not include eight outstanding awards in process.
 Numbers in the second and third lines above add up to the total number of applications received.
 "Awards Paid" is a sub-set of "Awards Offered."

Table B-2. Totals by Administrative Unit

	KU (Lawrence/ Edwards)		KUMC (All campuses)		Total	Percentage (Lawrence/Med)
Applications Received	210	+	348	=	558	38% / 62%
Applications Denied	90	+	171	=	261	34% / 66%
Awards Offered	120	+	177	=	297	40% / 60%
Awards Paid	85	+	113	=	198	43% / 57%

Note: "Awards Paid" does not include eight outstanding awards in process.
 Numbers in the second and third lines above add up to the total number of applications received.
 "Awards Paid" is a sub-set of "Awards Offered."

Table B-3. Unique Totals

Out of the 558 applications received:

Unique Authors	420
Unique Units	99
Unique Journals	322
Unique Publishers	109

Note: These numbers have no relation to each other and cannot be totaled in any combination.

Appendix C

Trends

Number of Applications

The number of applications has risen in five of the fund's eight years. FY21 recorded 77 applicants, the largest single-year total to date.

What the Publishers Charge Authors

Over the course of the fund's existence, the amount of money publishers charged authors applying for the OAAF awards has ranged from a low of $180 to a high of $5,200.

Amounts Authors Applied For

Authors have applied for amounts of money ranging from the OAAF's maximum of $1500 to a minimal $180, with the maximum amount being the one most often requested.

Table C-1. Funds Requested and reimbursed by Status

Excluding outstanding awards, 52% of applications from graduate students have received funding over the life of the fund.

Applicant Status	Reimbursed			Not Reimbursed		Percent of Applicants Receiving Funding
	Applicants	Funds Requested	Amount Paid	Applicants	Funds Requested
Graduate Student	89	$104,726	$95,690	91	$110,511	52%
Early career researcher/staff (first 5 years), non-tenure track	29	$34,188	$32,717	80	$103,016	27%
Non-tenure track (midcareer - longer than 5 years)	6	$7,778	$7,853	34	$38,446	17%
Tenure-track, untenured	38	$54,199	$51,799	60	$83,408	42%

Tenured	36	$42,638	$36,338	92	$121,213	31%
Grand Total	198	$243,529	$224,397	357	$456,594	38%
