

Equipment

Infra Red Webcams and Lighting

Two Infra Red webcams fitted with IR emitters as well as additional IR panels are available to use in the RBF facility. Each camera is capable of viewing up to 4 small rodent cages at once at a distance of less than 24 inches, producing optimal individual animal resolution. The cameras are useful for remote observation of animals in dark or low light conditions in a home cage environment.