Kansas Birth
Equity Network

The Kansas Birth Equity Network

COMMUNITY RESOURCE BOOKLET

MISSION

To use a community-centered approach to create solutions that improve Black maternal, paternal, and infant health in Kansas through training, research, healthcare, and advocacy.

VISION

Every Black mom, birthing person, dad, and infant receives quality and intentional prenatal, neonatal, and postpartum care in the state of Kansas.

PURPOSE

To convene stakeholders across Kansas to develop solutions and improve Black maternal, paternal and infant health in the State of Kansas.

BIRTH EQUITY DEFINITION

Developed by The Kansas Birth Equity Network

“Birth equity is defined as the assurance of equitable care through creating a system that eliminates health inequities and values parents and community stakeholders.”
